Dear Students and Faculty:

This year we have tried to bring you an accurate picture of school life in writing and pictures. In doing so we realize that we have interrupted much school routine, but we hope that we have not caused any hard feelings. Some may say that all this work has been to no avail, but you are to be the judge of that because - - -

HERE IT IS.

We are very thankful to the businessmen who have contributed and to those who have helped to make this volume of the Tom-Tom Echoes a success. The Staff sincerely hopes that each of you receives in return for your contributions an abundance of satisfaction and a lifetime of recorded memories.

As you look through these pages please excuse us for any mistakes which you may find—if such there be, they are purely accidental and have no personal reference to any student or teacher (real or otherwise). Students and Faculty - - -

HERE IT IS!

Sincerely yours,

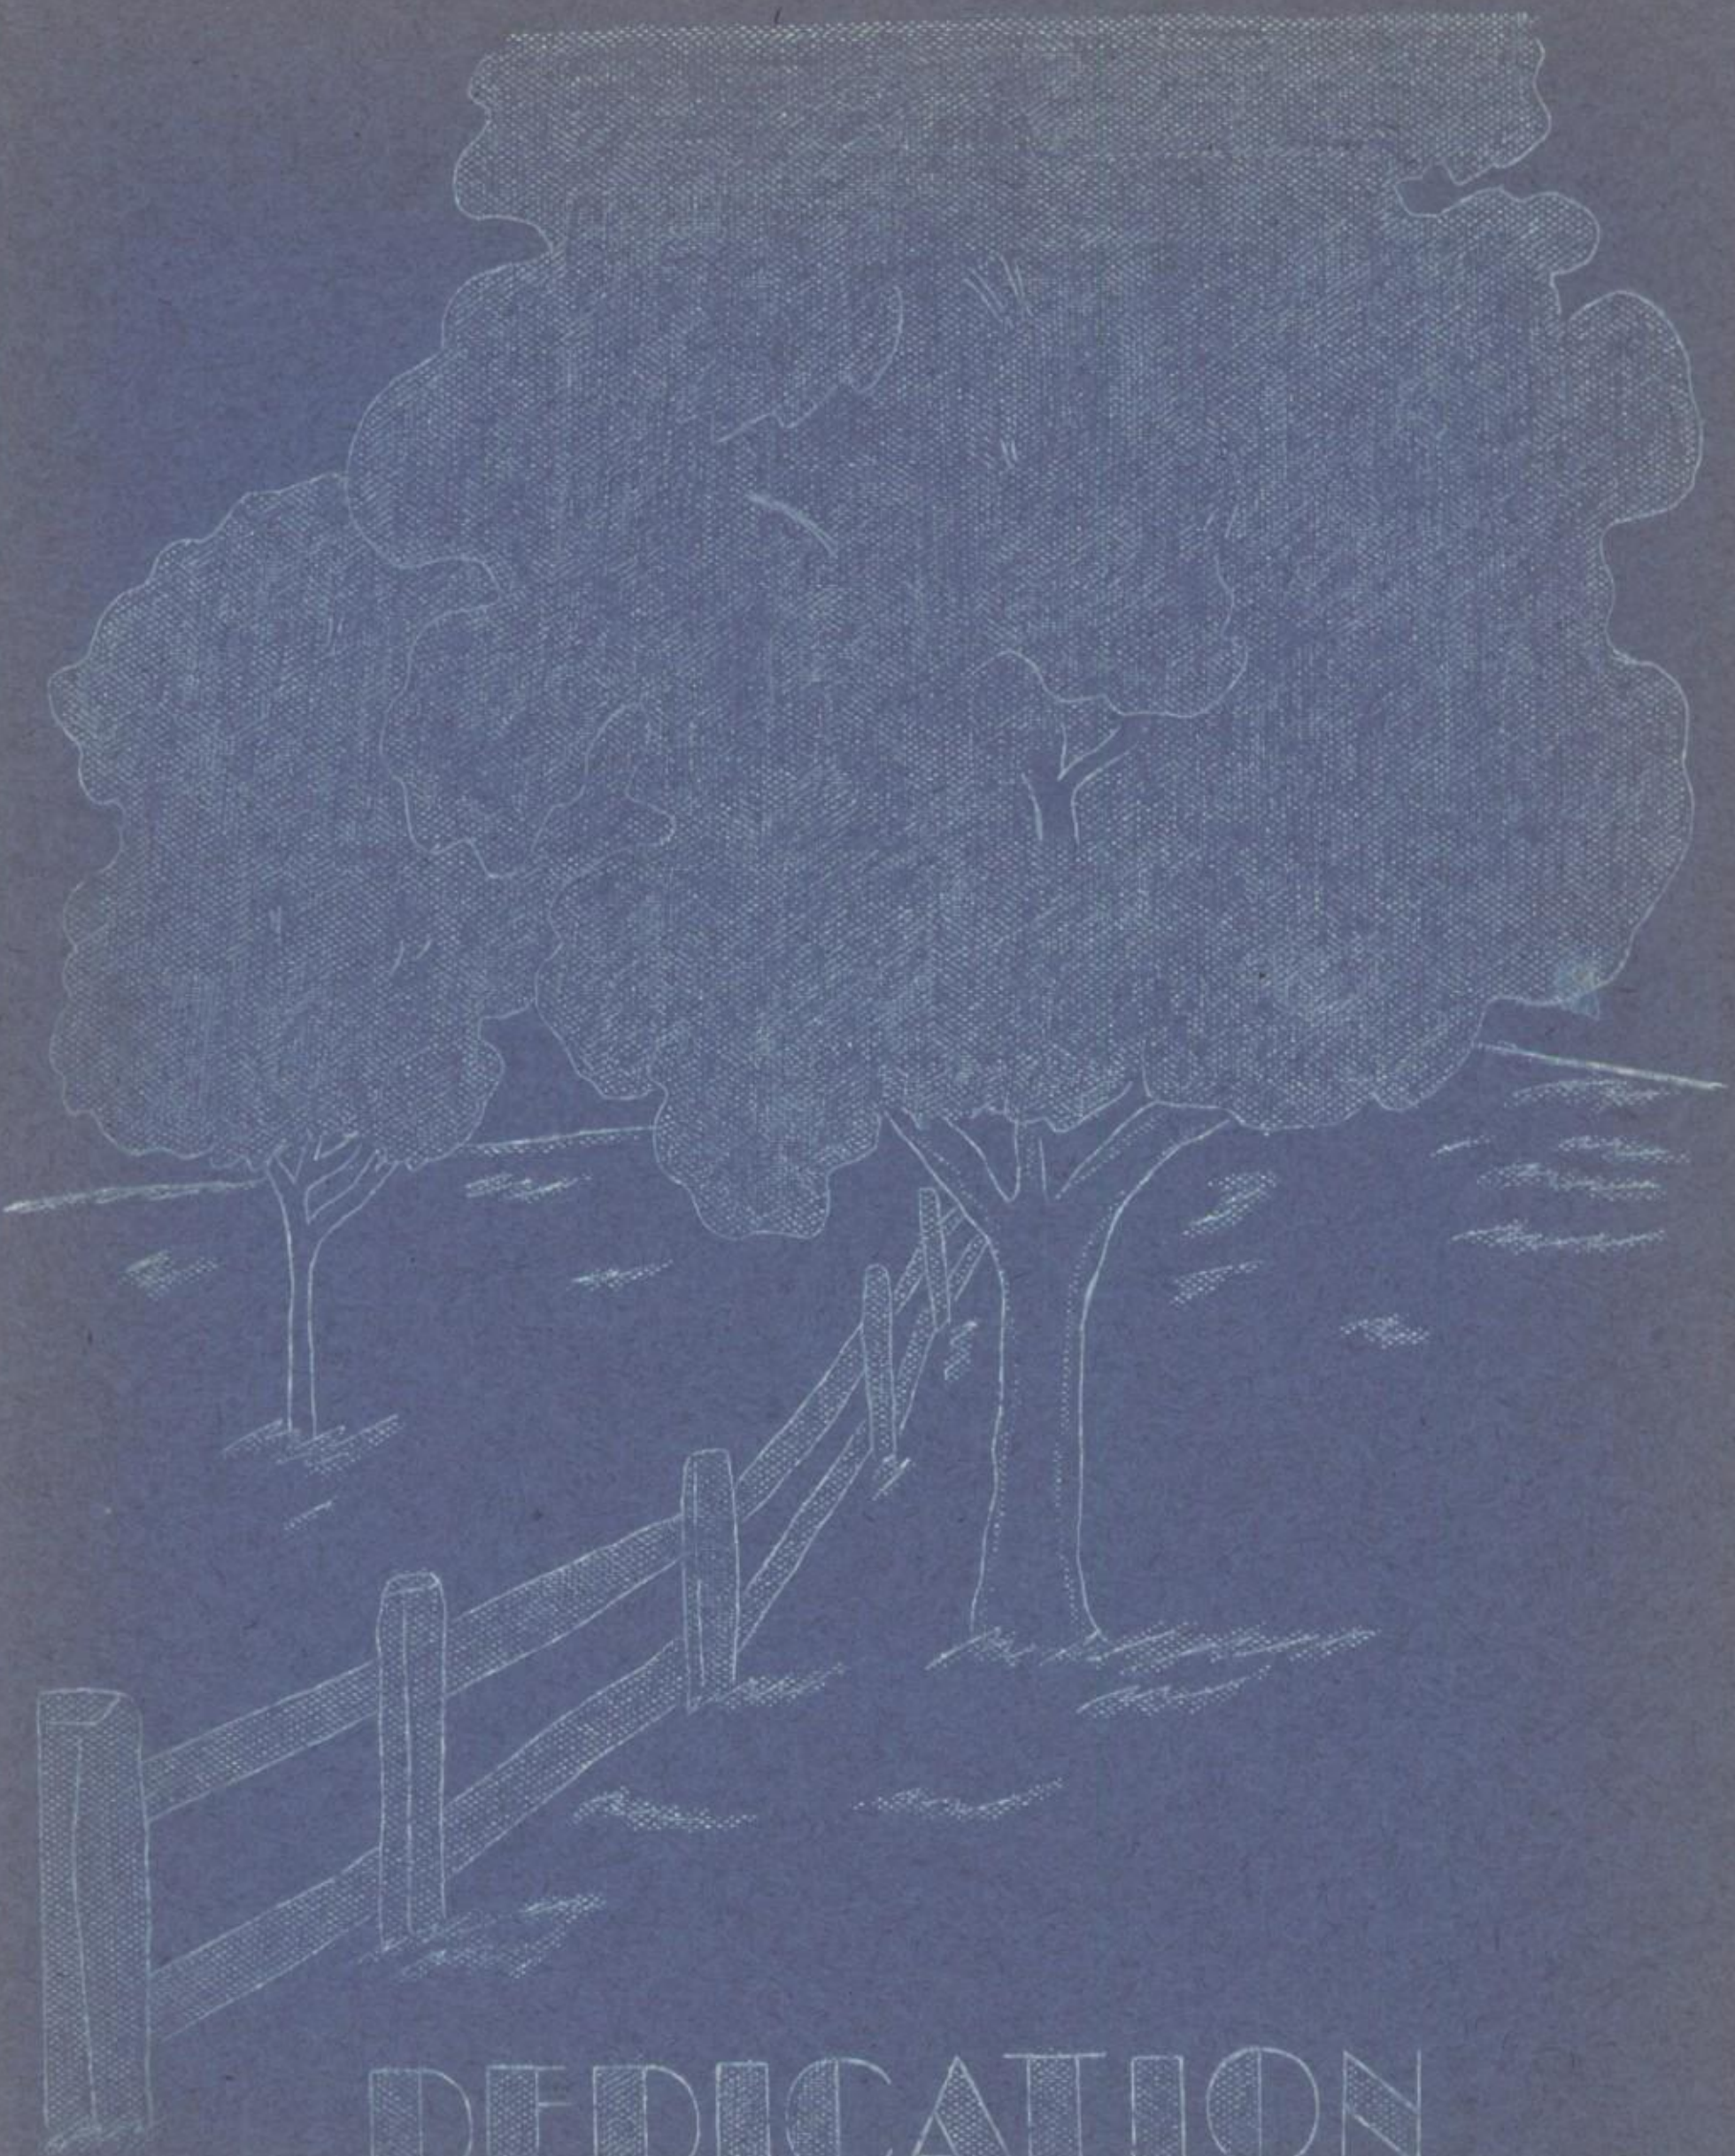

The Annual Staff

DEDICATION

Neil E. Hoover

As a token for the leadership and fond memories of our coach and teacher, Mr. Ben Odum, who left us February 16 for the armed services and to Mr. Neil Hoover, our friend and Industrial Arts Instructor, who has always been ready to lend a helping hand with our annual pictures, We, the Senior Class of 1951, wish to dedicate this twelfth volume of our Tom-Tom Echoes.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

ACT IV

Scene I. On September 3, 1947 twenty "green" Freshmen entered Annawan High School, with Mr. Richard Gieger as sponsor. The roll was answered by: Donald Bradley, Margaret Browning, Dorothy De Splinter, Phyllis De Splinter, Frank Eilers, Mary Ann Goodwin, Mary Anne Gripp, John Hermie, David Marchand, Barbara Moon, Suzanne Nelson, Barbara Nicely, Robert Nowers, Ronald Oleson, Harold Pritchard, Keith Spears, Marilyn Ufheil, Mabel Whittington, and Rodney Zinser. The class officers who piloted us through our Freshman year were: President, Keith Spears; Vice President, Robert Nowers; Secretary, Barbara Moon; Treasurer, Phyllis De Splinter; Student Council Representatives, Keith Spears and Harold Pritchard; Reporter, Margaret Browning. Our biggest event of the Freshman year was when the Sophomores gave us our initiation. Later on in the year we Freshmen entertained the entire school with a roller skating party. During the year Verne Stanfield joined our class.

Scene II. We enrolled as twenty-three "silly" Sophomores on September 3, 1948. Mabel Whittington did not return but we gained three new members, Donna Clementz from Prophetstown, Shirley Polson from Geneseo, and Jennet Van Hyfte from Atkinson. With Mrs. Lois Allen as our class sponsor we chose the following officers: President, Robert Nowers; Vice President, David Marchand; Secretary, Sue Nelson; Treasurer, Frank Eilers; Student Council Representative, Marilyn Ufheil. Instead of receiving the initiation this year we gave the Sophomores a formal (?) initiation. Lazelle Ulrick joined our class and Verne Stanfield and Donna Clementz left our class making our enrollment twenty-two.

Scene III. Twenty-two "jolly" Juniors again enrolled on August 29, 1949. John Hermie did not return to our class. We regained one member during the year, Donna Clementz, and lost one, Lazelle Ulrick. With our sponsors, Miss Betty Ohlmacher and Mrs. Lois Allen, we entertained the Seniors with a Jr.-Sr. Prom. We presented our class play, "The Baby Sitter," under the able direction of Mrs. Lois Allen. Our Junior officers to guide us through the year were: President, Robert Nowers; Vice President, Don Bradley; Secretary, Barbara Moon; Treasurer, Dorothy De Splinter; Student Council Representatives, Keith Spears, Dave Marchand, and Margaret Browning.

Scene IV. We enrolled as eighteen "sophisticated" Seniors on August 29, 1950 for our final year at Annawan High School. Phyllis De Splinter became Mrs. Eugene Eilers and did not return. Our class officers for this year were: President, Ronald Oleson; Vice President, Keith Spears; Secretary, Sue Nelson; Treasurer, Harold Pritchard; Student Council Representatives, Dave Marchand, Barbara Moon, and Robert Nowers. In the first semester Frank Eilers left to help on the farm. Under the leadership of Mr. Alfred Ehrig, our sponsor, we chose as our class motto: "Today Decides Tomorrow"; as our class flower: American Beauty Rose; and as our colors: rose and silver. We knew that graduation was near when Mr. Ehrig took our orders for announcement and name cards. On April 20 we gave our play, "The Brain Storm," under the direction of Mrs. Lois Allen. The annual was published under the efficient direction of Mrs. Ramah Peek; our editor, Dorothy DeSplinter; assistant editor, Barbara Moon; our business managers, Sue Nelson and Marilyn Ufheil, and all the other helpful Seniors.

CLASS POEM OF '51

As years go by we'll realize
The motto that we chose,
"Today Decides Tomorrow"
Is more than just plain prose.

To the American Beauty Rose
Our class will ever be true,
And our colors Rose and Silver
Will be remembered too.

Margaret Browning, a likable miss
Is the greatest fun-maker you can find,
As we laugh throughout the years
Her memory'll linger in our minds.

Don Bradley, our basketball hero,
Racks up points with his deadly aim,
If he continues this pace through life
Annawan will always be proud of his name.

Donna Clementz as a junior
Came to Annawan from Galva H. S.,
Everyone likes the friendly qualities
That she does possess.

Leroy Croegaert is next on our list
About him you never can tell,
The car he drives is really nice
It has everything—even a belle.

If you're looking for Mary Ann Gripp
You'll find her selling cokes,
She doesn't like to study much
But she's always full of jokes.

He's president of the F.F.A.
Dave Marchand as you well know,
He takes great pride in his livestock
May good luck for him be in stow.

Shirley Polson is our vocalist
She can warble any tune,
Her future seems to be all planned
She'll be a hit some day soon.

Bob Nowers has really done his part
Good in music, athletics too,
As this year's Student Council President
He deserves the credit, surely it is due.

Jennet Van Hyfte, nearly always quiet,
Has perseverance, her work she always does well,
A fond companion, happy and gay
Is liked by everyone as you can tell.

Ronald Oleson with a winning smile
Is always so carefree and gay,
He'll surely win friends all the while
With his happy go lucky way.

Marilynn Ufheil is a senior girl
Who is a neat and happy lass,
She always helps out when she's needed
And is never late for class.

Harold Pritchard, an industrious lad,
In planning on being a farmer,
And when the right girl pops into view
You can rest assured he'll charm her.

Sue Neison is an attractive miss
With all her schoolmates she's a hit,
Everyone will always remember
The cheerleading ability she did exhibit.

Keith Spears is an athlete
All the way through,
In football and basketball
And a track star, too.

Honors for Rodney Zinser who loves to sing
A tenor, and one of the best to be had,
You'll find that music is part of him
He's witty and fun-loving, but never bad.

Barbara Moon a green-eyed brunette
Is assistant editor of our yearbook clan,
She's always where there's gaiety
And ready to help out where she can.

Dorothy De Splinter, our Editor-in-Chief
In all her P. E. classes has excelled,
And as a true friend to all of us
She'll never be paralleled.

WE, the class of '51
Are about to leave you now;
These years have meant so much to us,
With regret we make our bow.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the graduating class of Annawan High School, being of unsound mind, weak heart, and being on the verge of departing from realms unknown, do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

I, JENNET VAN HYFTE, will by artistic ability to Charlene Parker. They'll need you on the Review staff next year. To Ralph Blackert, I bequeath my quiet and reserved nature. Silence is golden!

I, MARY ANNE GRIPP, will my love for cheerleading to Leona Van Vooren. Let's really yell, Leona. To Rosemary Wancket, I leave my short hair style. It's easier to take care of, Rosmary.

I, HAROLD PRITCHARD, leave my vitality to Doris Gradert. No speeding in public places, Doris. To Arvin Jackson, I will by ability to be late for home room. Don't abuse this privilege, Arvin.

I, DON BRADLEY, will my 'under the basket' ability to Don De Splinter. Keep up the good work, Slim. To Les Nelson, I leave my witty remarks. Just be careful where they're said, Les!

I, BARBARA MOON, will my love for shoes to Phyllis Richter. You'll always be broke, Phyllis. To Joan Morisette, I leave my ability to always make it to school on time. Better late than never, huh, Joanie?

I, LEROY CROEGAERT, leave my alertness in History class to Marvin Keim. I've found out you learn more when you listen. To Ronald De Splinter, I leave my careful (?) driving.

I, RODNEY ZINSER, will my ability to study hard to Dorothy De May. Don't stay home too many nights. To Shirley Esser, I leave my love for history. It helps when you like it, Shirley.

I, SHIRLEY POLSON, will to Mary Ann Grypp the keys to my truck. This is in case you lose yours, Mary Ann. To Marvin De May, I leave my speed in typing. It comes in handy, Marv.

I, DONNA CLEMENTZ, will by ability to get along with everyone to Betty Seyller. My ability to hold my temper I bequeath to Marilyn Kiem. Always count to ten first, Marilyn.

I, DOROTHY DE SPLINTER, will my hot shots in basketball to Ann Wilson. Make them all, Ann. To Donovan Kleckner, I leave my straight A's. You won't have to work so hard now, Cobb.

I, RONALD OLESON, will my easy going ways to Darrell Greenwood. Easy does it Duberry. My special football tactics I leave to Eugene Versluys. Mow 'em down, Scrooge.

I, ROBERT NOWERS, leave to Delner Doubler my flashy sport shirts. That should make your closet full, Del. To Tom Rieder, I leave my butch hair cut. The curl comes back, Tom.

I, MARGARET BROWNING, leave my red hair to Lolabelle Hansen. You won't need a rinse now! To Betty Pont, I leave my sunny disposition. Keep up the laughs, Betty.

To MISS OHLMACHER, we leave all the dirty dishes in the Homemaking room and all the rave-ings on the floor.

I, MARILYNN UFHEIL, will my dimples to Betty Monson. Always smile, Betty! To Marian Jorgensen, I leave my ability to get good grades in History without studying. No homework that way!

I, SUE NELSON, leave my cheerleading suit to Alvina Eilers in hopes that she'll use it next year. My straight A's in conduct I will to Virginia Snider. You'll need them for the "B" list, Ginger.

I, DAVE MARCHAND, will my ability to get the DeKalb Award to Stanley Pont. To Jack Bumphrey, I will my knowledge of mechanics and my job at Jerry's—if Uncle Sam has another job for me by next year!

I, KEITH SPEARS, will to Eugene Vande Voorde my many trips to Kewanee—but not to see my girl, Gene! To Paul Hilger, I leave my track ability to be added to your own. This should bring you all first places, Paul.

To all the teachers we will our voluntary class discussion and quietness at all other times.

To MR. EHRIG, we leave memories of our quietness (?) in Homeroom. Also our visits to the office.

To MRS. PEEK, we leave all the broken typewriters and paper wads that missed the basket.

To MRS. ROBERTS, we leave our unused paints in Art Class. We also leave to you our sour notes. (The good ones we'll keep.)

To MR. VITTO, we will our empty chairs and all of our squeaks and blares.

To MR. HOOVER, we will our piles of sawdust and rusty nails.

To MR. RAINEY, we leave an electric typewriter and any left-over parts from our hot rods.

To MRS. ALLEN, we leave all of our "aint's" (we don't think we'll need them) and all of our unpaid library fines.

To MR. BRIDGES, we leave our spot on the ceiling and all of our broken test tubes.

To MR. PARKS, we leave our ability to take tests without having reviews.

To MR. OSBORN, we leave our quiet ways in the halls.

To PVT. BEN ODUM, we leave all memories that you may have acquired while teaching and coaching at A.H.S.

To MARION, we leave all our muddy footprints in the halls and also all of our gum wrappers on the floors.

To JENNY, we leave all of the unclaimed items on the tops of the lockers in the Girls Room.

To the JUNIORS, we leave all of our debts and ability to keep out of trouble.

To the SOPHOMORES, we leave our excellent behavior and our intelligence.

To the FRESHMEN, we leave all of our books with no marks erased. We hope you will use them more than we did.

Given under our hand and seal on the twenty-fifth day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty-one.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

The year is 1951. I have just graduated from Annawan High School. Through some strange inheritance I have been granted the sole use of the new invention Time Marches On. This is a machine that automatically, through super-atomic power, transfers me to the moon where a Futurescope allows me to see into the future. I am now on the moon and have the Futurescope set for 1961.

I see an Agricultural Research Farm located at Eggstaff, Arizona. It is owned and run by Harold Pritchard. Harold is always working on experiments. Right now he is trying to prove which came first, the chicken or the egg. I hope this doesn't turn out like the one he tried in Chemistry class back at Annawan High in '51. To those who were not there, it landed on the ceiling.

As I sight a little farther east I see a big plane landing and the air stewardess, Shirley Polson, is escorting the fabulously rich old schoolmate, Donna Clementz, from the plane. Donna's husband made his fortune when he discovered the fountain pen that writes under water. Shirley is her personal air stewardess. Among Donna's many other employees at her home at Pudock, Arkansas, is Marilyn Ufheil, the governess. Marilyn takes care of Donna's two-year old twins.

Across the miles I can see a town that looks familiar. There seems to be a college in the center. Yes, it is Western State Teachers College in Macomb, Illinois. Out on the football field I see a football scrimmage in action. Someone calls, "Coach Oleson, did you tell me to run around that man or lie down in front of him?" Sure enough, there is an old schoolmate, Ronald Oleson, coaching the Varsity Football team. I hope he teaches them to block the way he did on the Annawan football team.

Looking into the main building I see a Home-making class in session. At the front of the room the teacher is telling the students to be sure to know the Basic Seven. Wait a minute, that teacher is none other than Margaret Browning. We always wondered if Margaret would become a teacher or go into Nurses Training.

Leaving Macomb, I focus my Futurescope for a few minutes to watch a Physical Education class at a small high school near my old home town. I believe the town is Manlius. The girls seem to be in good form, but then they should be with Dorothy De Splinter as their teacher. She is demonstrating the one-handed backboard shot that Mrs. Peek taught her. Dorothy is still wearing sweatshirt No. 6.

Turning back toward Annawan I look around at the many farms. There are many new farm homes added around Annawan since 1951 but one especially catches my eye, and no wonder—the name on the mail box is Mr. Keith Spears. Yes, and I see Keith going from place to place in his atomic-propelled helicopter-jeep supervising the many farm hands he has working for him. I am sorry that I do not have time to keep my Futurescope focused a little longer here and try to find out who is doing the cooking for Keith.

Just now I see a big cloud of dust accompanied by a terrible noise and out of this cloud of dust comes "Croegaert the Great." Leroy has just won first place in the Stock Car Race. He seems to get a thrill out of the ride as well as the money he earns. Emerging from the rear of Leroy's car, "Croegaert the Great," wearing wind proof coveralls and helmet is Leroy's personal mechanic, Dave Marchand. Good luck to you boys.

Looking back to the old home town I notice a new garage built right in the center of town. Looking closer I see it is a Chrysler-Studebaker Garage and owned by Bob Nowers and Don Bradley. It seems that Bob has broken the world's record as the Chrysler-Studebaker salesman and Don is the chief mechanic who supervises the chain of Chrysler-Studebaker Garages all over the United States.

The next thing that comes into my view is an Army Camp somewhere in Kentucky. As I look into the Captain's Office I see a very familiar face sitting at the receptionist desk. Yes, it is Sergeant Sue Nelson, private secretary to the captain. She's still unattached.

Turning from the army camp I find myself looking at what seems to be millions of huge buildings. All these buildings have the name GRIPP'S EXCLUSIVE FROM HOLLYWOOD. Mary Anne has taken over and enlarged Louella Parson's job as Hollywood's gossip columnist.

Another chain of buildings nearby has the name MOON'S ATOMIC TAXI SERVICE FROM NEW YORK TO LOS ANGELES. Bubbles Moon is the proprietor and main driver—the make of her taxis are Chryslers or Studebakers—if that means anything.

Looking further down the street I see an artist busily painting the portrait of Gregory Bushel. It is Jennet Van Hyfte who has just won the World's Side Walk Portrait Contest with her portrait of the son of the King Confucious the IC (99th)—the Prince Moronius, of Sicamcathy. It is rumored that the Prince is Jennet's fiancée.

I forgot to tell you that I am the Cinderella of the Futurescope. Like Cinderella, I must return to the earth after a given length of time and discontinue the use of this wonderful invention.

My time is almost up and I must prepare to return to earth—but wait—what is that I hear—it is music, someone is singing here on the moon. I recognize that voice—it is Rodney Zinser's—he is here on the moon directing a choir of the most beautiful creatures I have ever seen. I am indeed sorry that my time is up and I can not speak to Rodney—how did he get up here, and who are those wonderful singers he is directing? But I must be going.

Please contact me in the future when I have a new allotment of time to explore into the future with the FUTURESOCPE.

Scene I. We "jolly" Juniors started our third year in Annawan High School with thirty-four members: Ralph Blackert, Jack Bumphrey, Dorothy De May, Marvin De May, Donald De Splinter, Ronald De Splinter, Delner Doubler, Alvina Eilers, Shirley Esser, Doris Gradert, Darrell Greenwood, Mary Ann Grypp, Lolabelle Hansen, Paul Hilger, Arvin Jackson, Marian Jorgensen, Marilyn Keim, Marvin Keim, Donavon Kleckner, Betty Monson, Joan Morisette, Leslie Nelson, Charlene Parker, Betty Pont, Stanley Pont, Tom Rieder, Phyllis Richter, Betty Seyller, Virginia Snider, Eugene Vande Voorde, Leona Van Vooren, Eugene Versluys, Rosemary Wancket, and Ann Wilson.

Scene II. As our class officers we chose: President, Marilyn Keim; Vice President, Les Nelson; Secretary, Charlene Parker; Treasurer, Delner Doubler.

Scene III. With the help of Mr. Jay Bridges, our class sponsor, we sold pop, candy, popcorn and sandwiches at home football and basketball games.

Scene IV. We presented our play, "Beauty and the Beef," on November 17, 1950 under the direction of Mrs. Lois Allen.

Scene V. In May, with the money we earned by selling at the games, we entertained the Seniors by giving them a Jr.-Sr. Prom.

Curtain. We all have worked hard this year but have enjoyed every minute of it. Next year we are all looking forward to being "sophisticated" Seniors.

Ronnie: "May I hold your hand?"

Alvina: "It isn't heavy. I can manage, thank you."

Mrs. Peek: "What kept you out of school yesterday—acute indigestion?"

Joan: "No, a cute soldier."

Mr. Rainey: "You can't sleep in my class."

Gene: "If you didn't talk so loud I could."

Mr. Osborn: "Why are you late for school every morning?"

Scrooge: "Every time I come to the corner a sign says, School, Go Slow."

Mrs. Peek: "What does unaware mean?"

Doris: "It's the last thing you take off at night."

Mr. Hoover: "Never mind the date. The examination is more important."

Les: "Well, I wanted to have something right on my paper."

Tom: "What kind of car has Gene?"

Stanley: "A pray-as-you-enter."

Mr. Rainey: "You missed my class yesterday, didn't you?"

Jack: "Not in the least, not in the least."

Rosemary: "I forgot to take my umbrella this morning."

Leona: "When did you miss it?"

Rosemary: "When I reached up to close it after the rain stopped."

Phyllis (following rapid-fire dictation): "Now, Mrs. Peek, what did you say between Dear Sir and Sincerely yours?"

Delly: "I once dared a prizefighter to fight me."

Don: "How brave. What happened?"

Delly: "I hung up the telephone receiver."

Mr. Bridges: "Can you give me an example of wasted energy?"

Marvin: "Yes, telling a hair-raising story to a bald-headed man."

Charlene: "Did you ever hear the story about the three eggs?"

Shirley: "No, what?"

Charlene: "Too bad."

Mrs. Allen: "If William Shakespeare were alive today, do you think he would be considered a remarkable man?"

Ralph: "Oh, yes indeed."

Mrs. Allen: "Give your reason."

Ralph: "He'd be more than 350 years old."

Paul: "What's the hurry? What are you running for?"

Darrell: "I'm trying to stop a fight."

Paul: "Who's fighting?"

Darrell: "Me and another fellow."

Arvin: "Hey, sit down in front."

Donavon: "Quit your kidding. I don't bend that way."

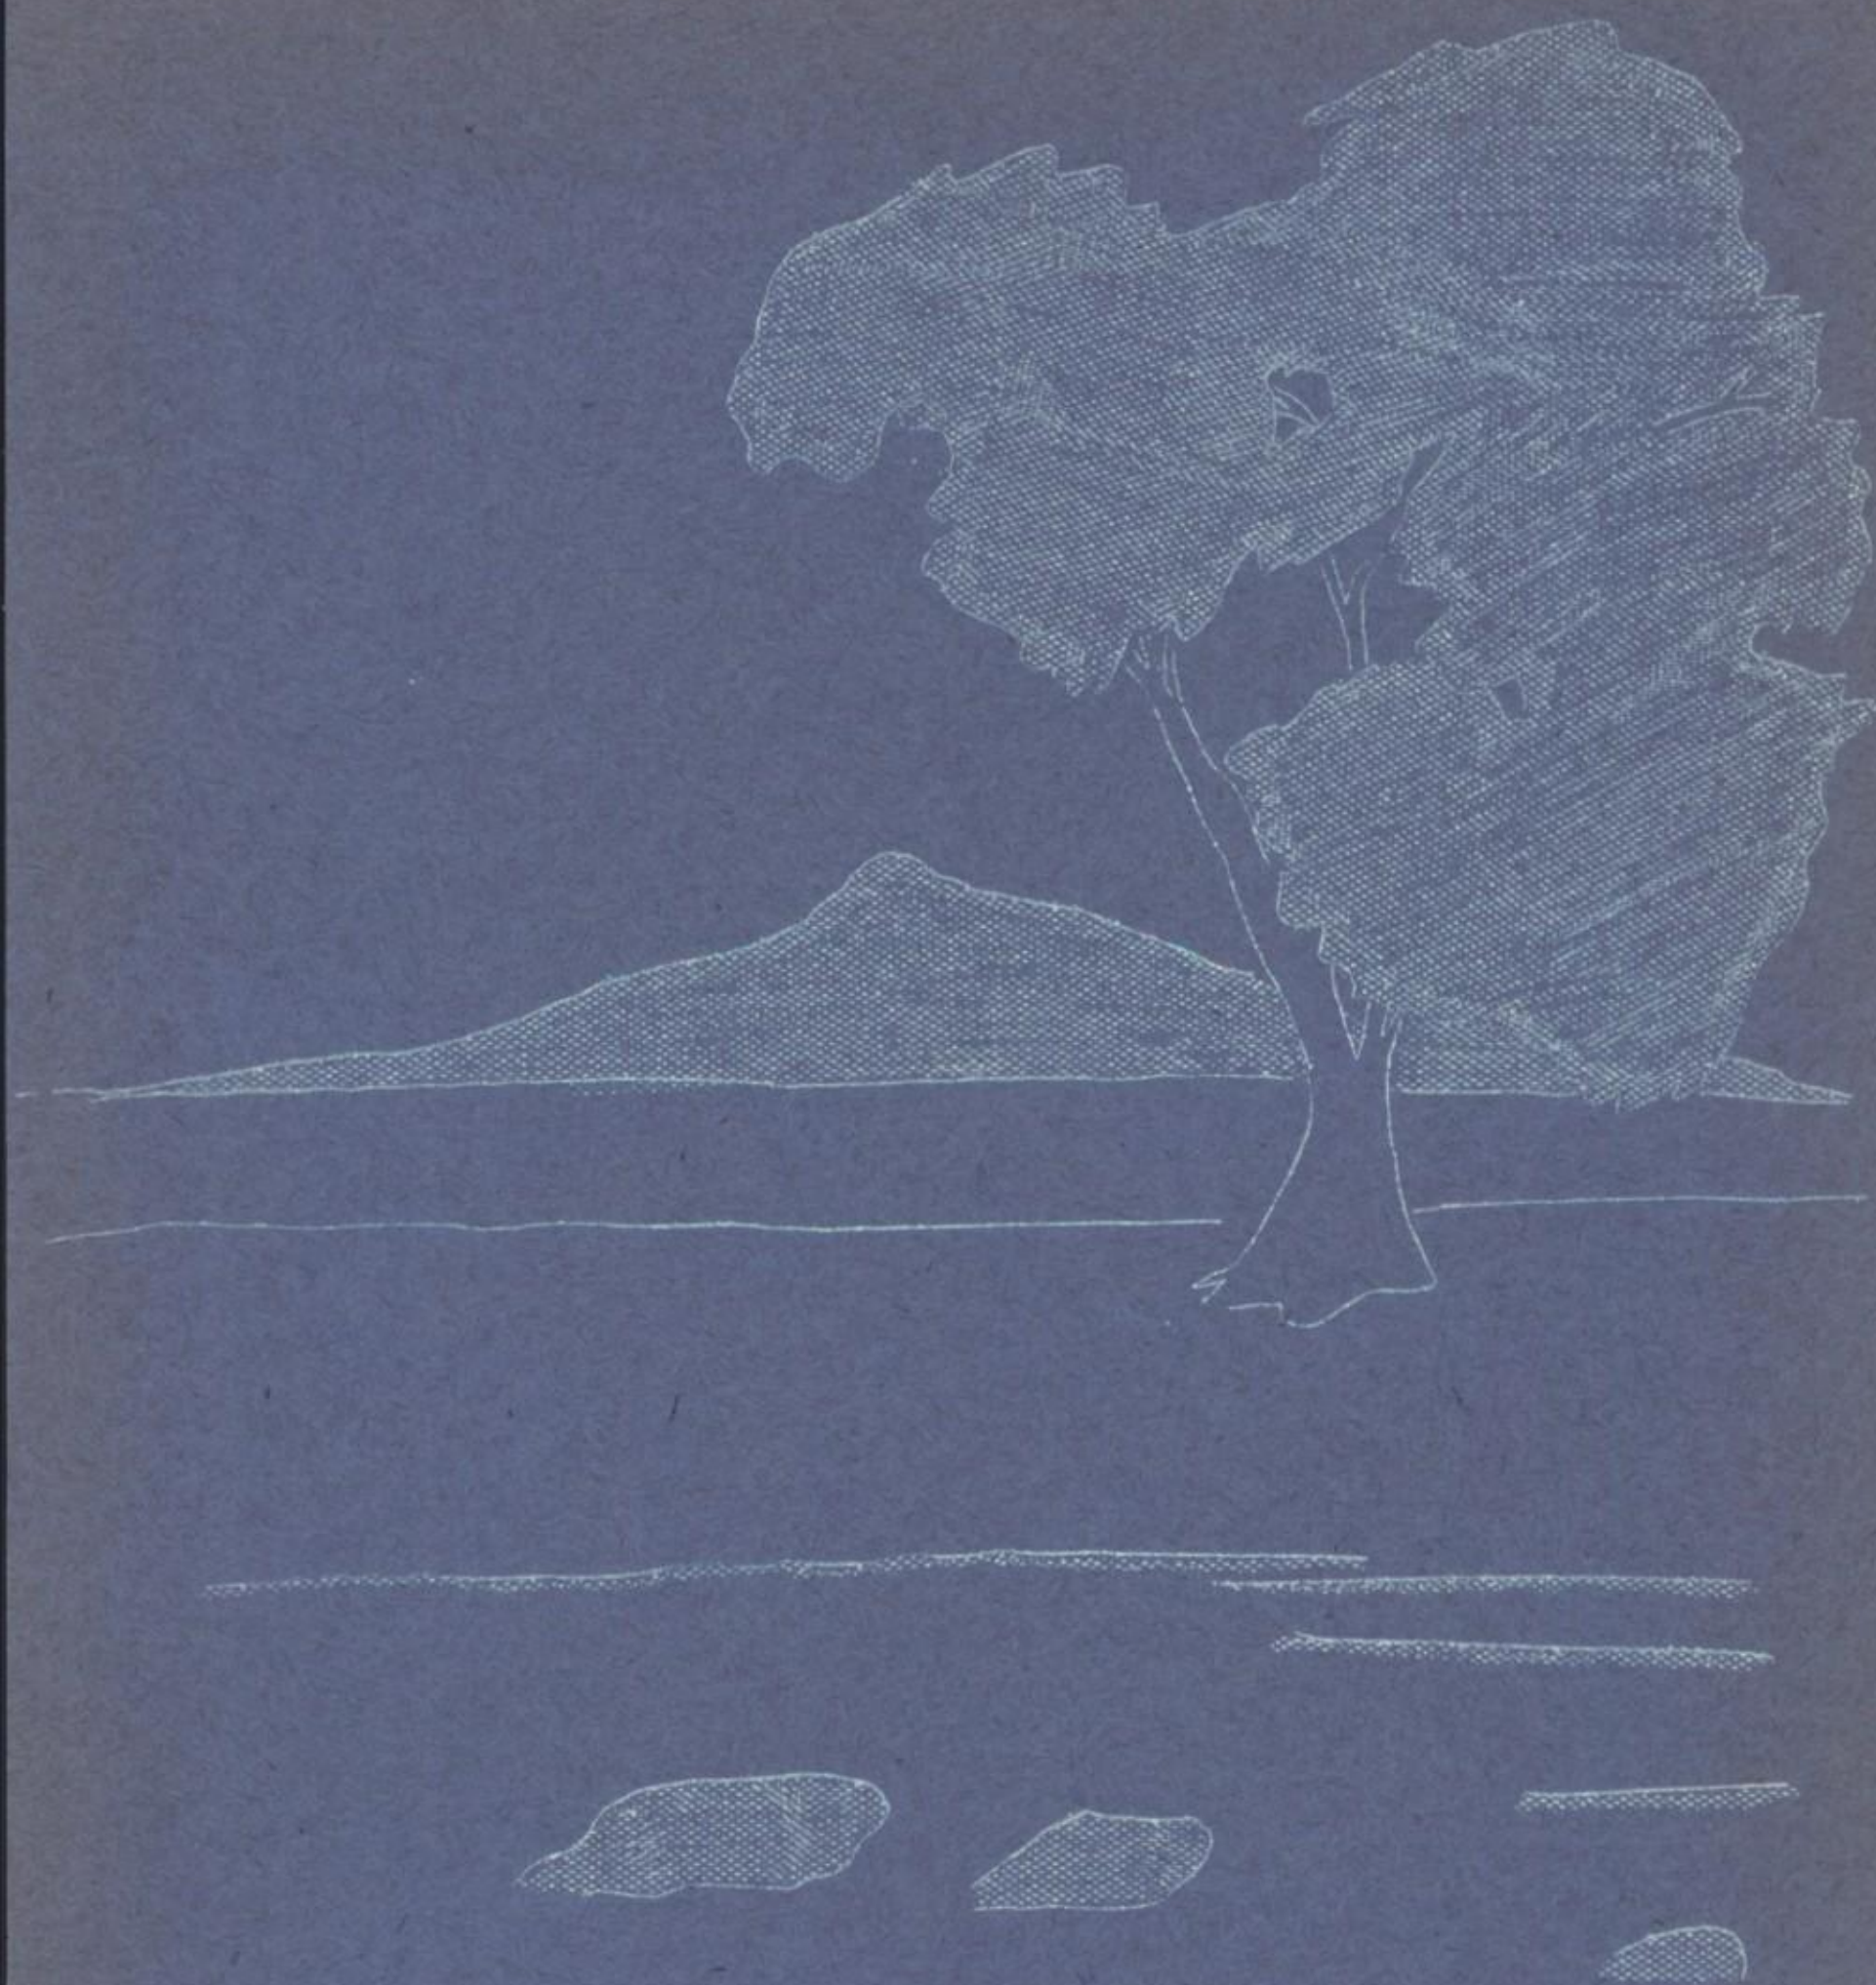

Mrs. Peek: "This makes the fifth time I have punished you this week. What have you to say?"

Marvin De M.: "I'm glad it's Friday."

Dorothy: "Which is the most popular money in the U. S.?"

Betty M.: "I don't know. What is?"

Dorothy: "Matrimony."

Betty: "I don't see how football players ever get clean."

Stella: "Silly, what do you suppose the scrub teams are for."

Dad: "Quentin, are you pursuing your studies faithfully?"

Quentin: "Yes, indeed, Dad. I'm always behind."

Mr. Hoover: "Name a great time saver."

August: "Love at first sight."

Jim: "Gimme a bucket of insane ice."

Marian: "Insane ice?"

Jim: "Yeh, cracked."

Mr. Ehrig: "How old is a person who was born in 1902?"

Dennis: "Man or woman?"

Carolyn: "Will you be a stag at our formal next week?"

Bob: "Sure, I love masquerade parties."

Mrs. Allen: "What is a synonym?"

Bugs: "It's a word you use in place of another when you can't spell the other one."

Dad: "Well, how are your marks?"

Don: "They're under water."

Dad: "What do you mean under water?"

Don: "Below 'C' level."

Mr. Bridges: "What can you tell me about nitrates?"

Susan: "Well, er--they are a lot cheaper than day rates."

Mr. Parks: "Who's the Speaker of the House?"

Joan: "Mother."

Clarence: "Say, Dale, get me some fly paper."

Dale: "What for?"

Clarence: "I want to send this letter Air Mail."

Ethel: "What's the difference between a hill and a pill?"

Jean Ann: "I give up."

Ethel: "One is hard to get up and the other is hard to get down."

Mr. Rainey: "Does the question embarrass you?"

Art: "Not at all. It is quite clear. It's the answer that is bothering me."

Mr. Bridges: "Have you given the goldfish fresh water?"

Sharon: "No, they ain't finished the water I gave them yesterday yet."

Lorraine: "Did you ever see the Catskill Mountains?"

Vera: "No, but I've seen them kill mice."

Betty P.: "They say an apple a day will keep the doctor away."

Marian: "Why stop there? An onion a day will keep everybody away."

Lolabelle: "I've changed my mind."

Mary Ann: "Thank heaven. Does it work any better now?"

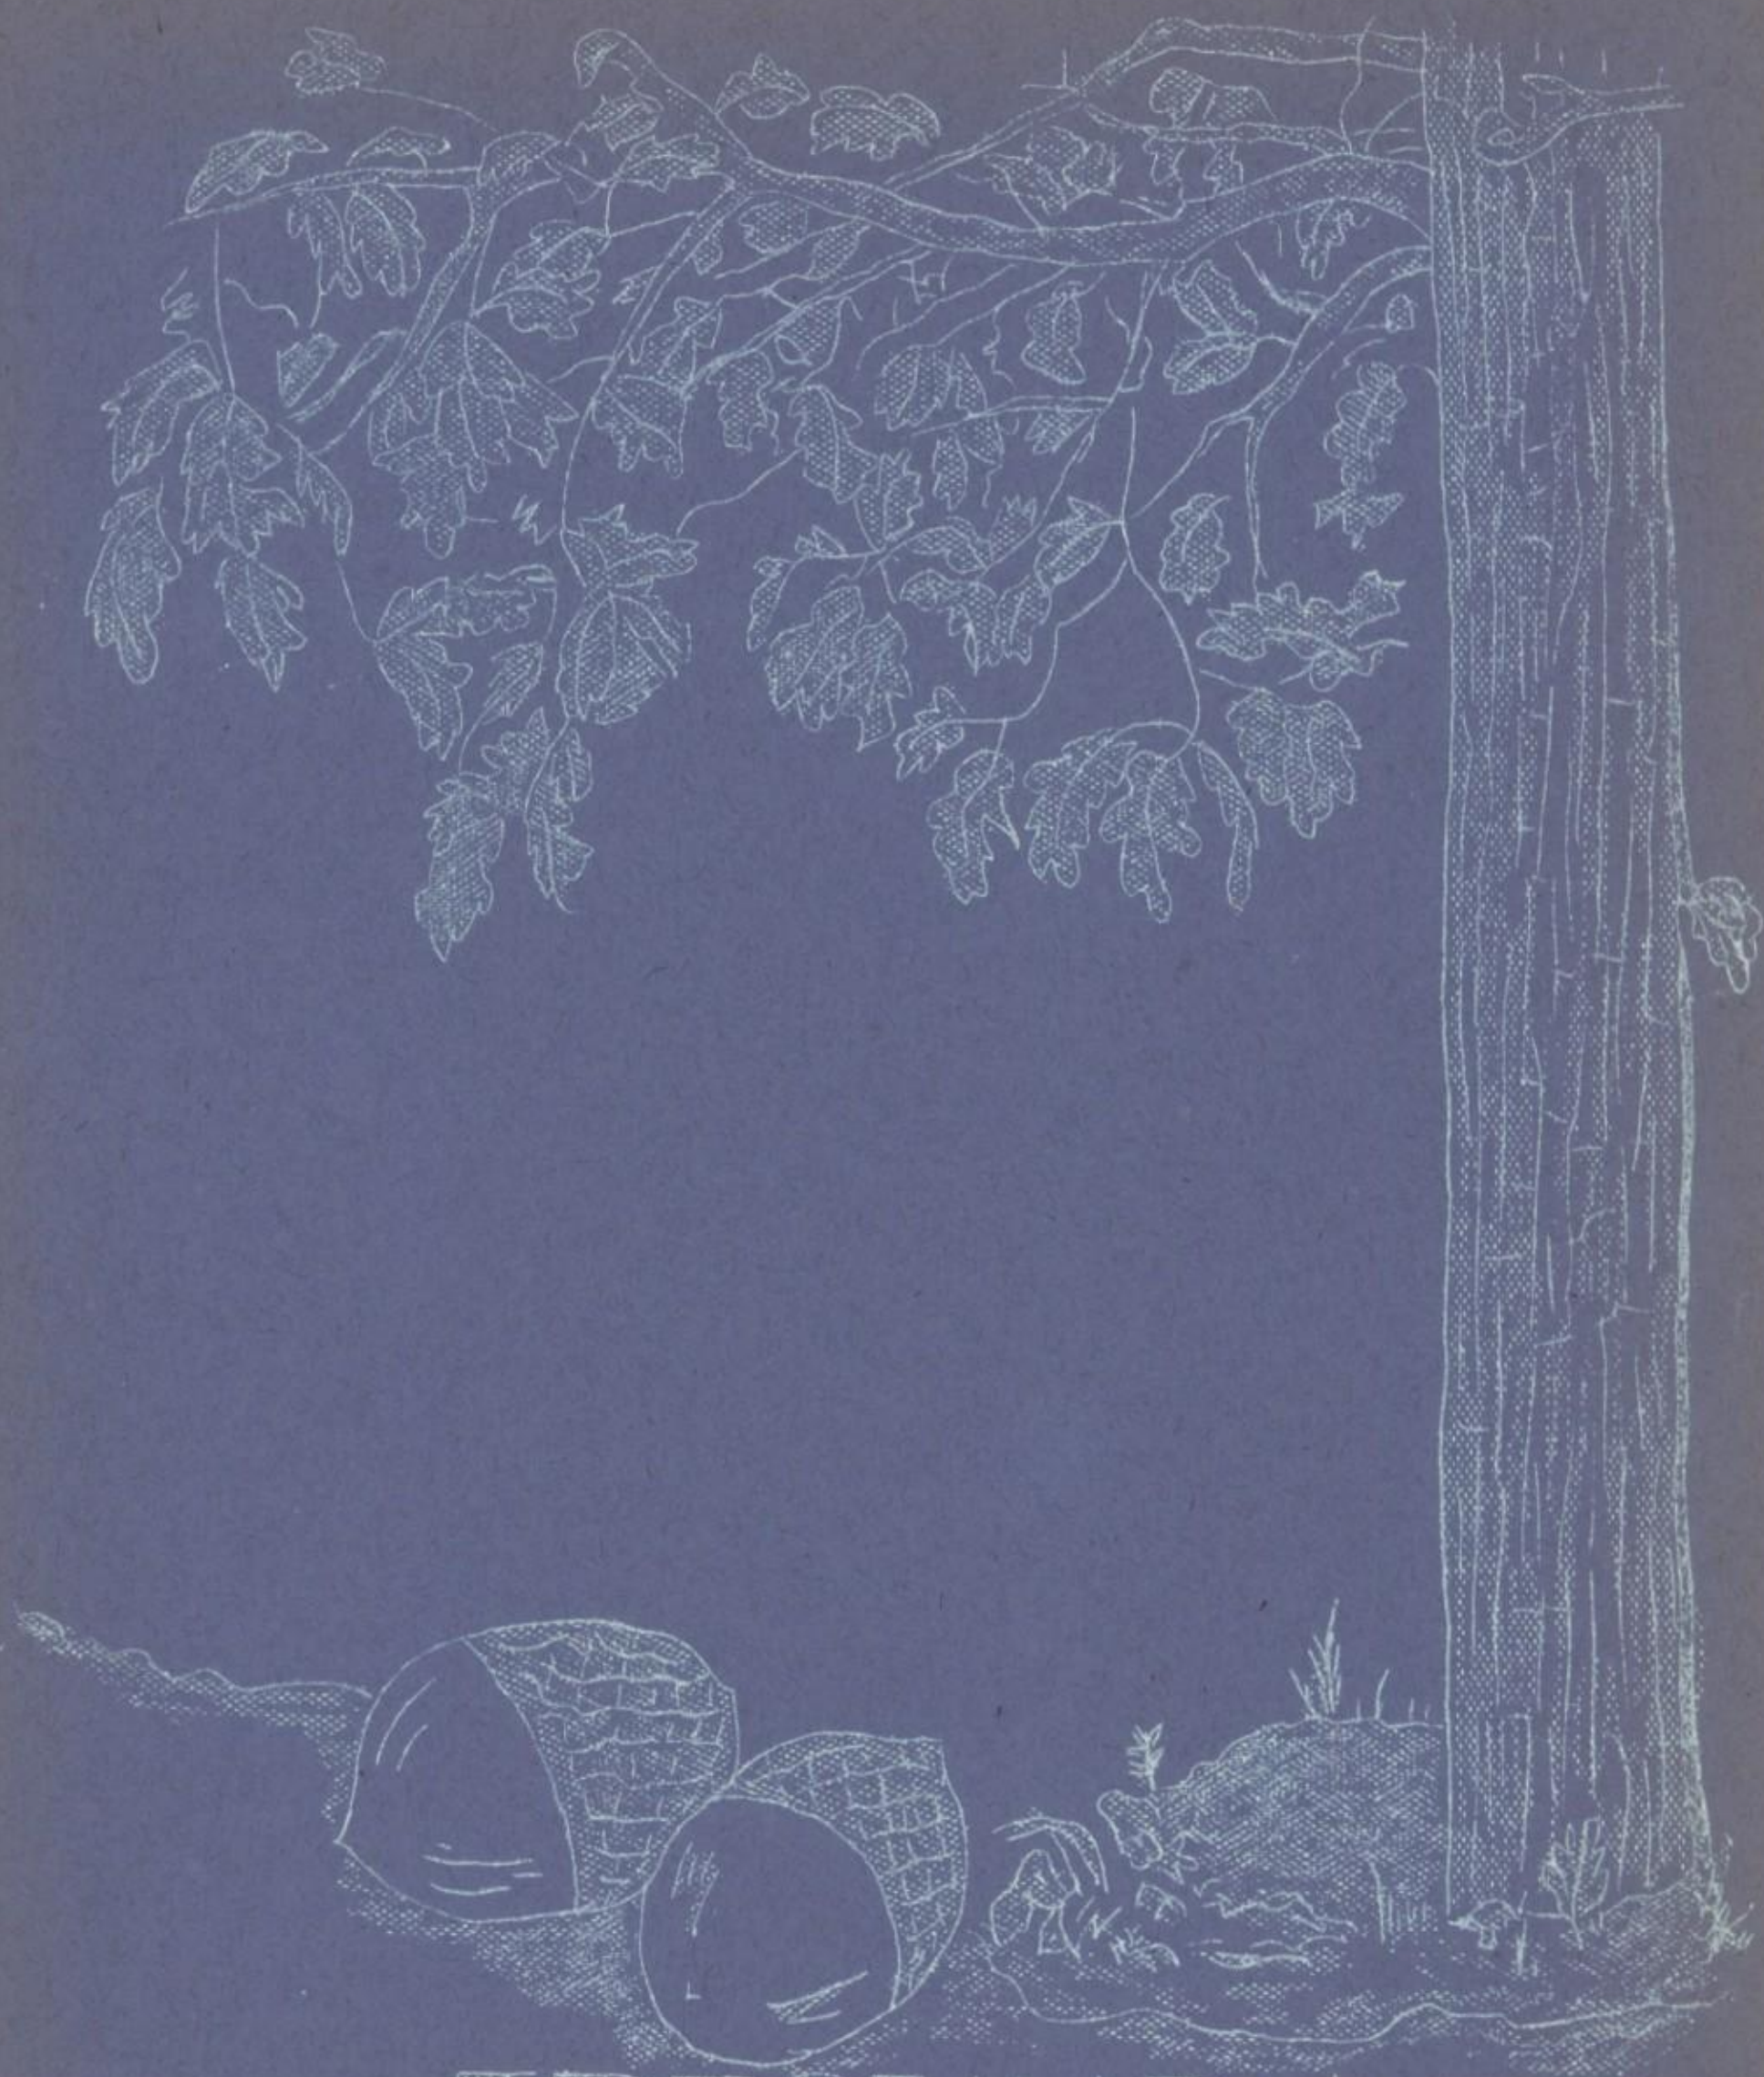

Marilyn: "How did you find the weather while you were away?"

Ann: "Just went outside and there it was."

Virginia: "Which travels faster--heat or cold?"

Betty S.: "I give up."

Virginia: "Heat, because you can catch cold easily."

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

ACT I

Scene I. Twenty-nine "green" Freshmen enrolled in Annawan High School on August 29, 1950. Those who enrolled were: Robert Bartman, Roberta Bartman, Adrianna Blackert, Graham Browning, Blair Clementz, Elaine De Craene, Kenneth Eilers, Donald Foerder, Joe Gilbraith, Dorothy Goodwin, Helen Greenwood, Frank Gripp, James Gripp, Esther Hermie, Shirley Johnson, William Keeley, Carol Kleckner, Henry Nanninga, Kenneth Newlon, Bonita Norway, Margaret Powell, Ralph Pritchard, Virginia Quaife, John Simaytis, Philip Snider, Joanne Talbot, Marilyn Thompson, Norma Jean Van Opdorp, and Marlene Vyneman.

Scene II. Received a thorough initiation given by the Sophomores.

- A. The girls were dressed in gunny sacks and blouses. Their hair was in pigtailed tied with a green ribbon. They wore their Dad's workshoes, one arm in a sling, and three onions around their neck. They carried a pail to carry the Sophomores books.
- B. The boys wore girl's skirts and blouses and high heels and hose. Their hair was powdered, make-up was abundantly applied, and one arm in a sling. They carried a pail containing the Sophomores books.
- C. Refreshments and games followed in the afternoon with stunts by the Freshmen.

Scene III. Mrs. Lois Allen, class sponsor, guided us through the year along with the class officers: President, Joe Gilbraith; Vice President, Marlene Vyneman; Secretary, Margaret Powell; Treasurer, Graham Browning; Student Council Representatives, Frank Gripp and Margaret Powell.

Scene IV. Lost one member, Dorothy Goodwin, at the end of the first six weeks.

Scene V. Gave an assembly on "Manner at a Dance" under the direction of Mrs. Lois Allen.

Curtain. The "green" Freshmen enjoyed their first year at Annawan High School and hope that their next year will be just as enjoyable.

Blair: "Oh, no, thirty days is enough."

Mr. Bridges: "What's the difference between lightning and electricity?"

Marilyn: "Well, you don't have to pay for lightning."

Mr. Ehrig: "How far are you from the correct answer?"

Kenny E.: "Two seats."

Mrs. Allen: "I have went. That's wrong, isn't it?"

Frank: "Yes ma'am."

Mrs. Allen: "Why is it wrong?"

Frank: "Because you ain't went yet."

Adrianna: "What does Mrs. Roberts like to draw best?"

Roberta: "I don't know. What?"

Adrianna: "Her salary."

Ralph: "Have you noticed the latest thing in men's clothes?"

John: "Yes, women."

Philip (getting into elevator): "Sixth floor, please."

Lady Operator: "Here's the sixth floor, son."

Philip: "Don't call me son; you're not my mother."

Operator: "Well, I brought you up, didn't I?"

Mrs. Allen: "Can you define nonsense?"

Bill: "Yes, Mrs. Allen, an elephant hanging over a cliff with his tail tied to a daisy."

Joanne: "What kind of hen lays the longest?"

Shirley: "What kind?"

Joanne: "A dead hen."

They laughed at Don when he sat down at the piano—he had forgotten to bring the stool.

Mr. Ehrig: "Now, Kenny, if I lay three eggs here and five eggs here, how many will I have?"

Kenny N. (with questioning glance): "I don't believe you can do it, sir."

Mrs. Allen: "Give me three collective nouns."

Elaine: "Flypaper, wastebasket, and vacuum cleaner."

Esther: "There are several things I can always count on."

Helen: "What are they?"

Esther: "My fingers."

Marlene: "Does the giraffe get a sore throat if he gets wet feet?"

Norma: "Yes, but not until the next week."

Robert: "I want to do something big and clean."

Henry: "Then wash an elephant."

Virginia: "I heard something this morning that opened my eyes."

Margaret: "So did I—an alarm clock."

Bonnie: "A moth leads an awful life."

Carol: "How come?"

Bonnie: "He spends the summer in a fur coat and the winter in a bathing suit."

NEWS BITS

Sadie Hawkins Dance Held in Annawan

The Sadie Hawkins dance, sponsored by the FHA was greatly enjoyed and considered a great success by the students and faculty of the school. It was held in the school gymnasium, decorated attractively and cleverly with cornstalks, pumpkins, and bales of straw used as chairs.

The girls were attired in colorful cotton skirts and blouses while the boys were equally attractive in their blue jeans and bright colored shirts.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ehrig, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Osborn, G. T. Rainey, and Mrs. William Allen, and the FHA sponsor, Miss Betty Ohlmacher, served as chaperones.

The evening was opened by Mrs. Ramah Peek, who led the group in the grand march. She later led the dancing of the Virginia Reel.

The Charleston contest was won by Joan Morissette and Mary Ann Gripp. The Tangle Rope contest was won by Stella Andrews and Les Nelson.

Refreshments of cider and doughnuts were served during the evening of dancing.

Student Council Sponsors Christmas Party

Joan Morisette acted as master of ceremonies at the Christmas Party. Santa Claus was a special guest. Mrs. Alice Roberts led the students and teachers in singing Christmas Carols. Other students who appeared on the program were: Rodney Zinser, Alvina Eilers, Dale Nowers, Shirley Polson, Donald Foerder, Joan and Mary Ann Grypp, Arvin Jackson, Sharon Ufheil, Stella Andrews and Rosemary Wancket. A contest of Twenty Questions was conducted by members of the Senior class using two members from each class as contestants.

FHA Holds Mother-Daughter Banquet, Initiation

Twelve girls were initiated during the candlelight ceremony in charge of the president, Margaret Browning and Miss Betty Ohlmacher, sponsor. Mrs. F. C. Dewey, the chapter mother was an honored guest.

Proving that chivalry was not dead among the 30 FFA boys, a representation from their ranks did a grand job of serving the banquet.

Doris Gradert, program chairman, introduced Arvin Jackson, who sang "There's No Tomorrow," and "It's a Big Wide Wonderful World., Joan and Mary Ann Grypp, who sang "My Heart Cries for You." Virginia Quaife and Elaine DeCrane, who sang "That Wonderful Mother of Mine." Rosemary Wancket was the accompanist.

AHS Bandsmen Get High Honors District Contest

The saxophone sextet, directed by Ben Vitto, composed of Sharon Ufheil, Betty Monson, Ethel Shaw, Carol Machesney, Bob Nowers, and Clarence

Miller, playing "Indian Dance," won first honors at the district solo and band contests at Abingdon.

The mixed clarinet quartet, composed of Margaret Browning, Marian Jorgensen, Joan Grypp, Joan Morisette, playing "Bouree," won second honors.

Marilyn Keim and Charlene Parker, playing "Pepperino," as a clarinet duet won second. Rosemary Wancket accompanied.

Annawan School Band Concert Friday Night

Eleventh annual concert of the Annawan school band, Friday, March 30, at 8 p. m., will have as soloists the first public appearance of the saxophone sextet, a clarinet duet and the performance of the "Dream of Olwen," a piano solo played by Joan Morissette, accompanied by the band. There will be a social hour after the concert. Coffee and pie will be served by the band boosters club.

Annawan Athletes Awarded Letters at Banquet

"Every boy is of great value to the team and no matter how good one player may appear to be, he cannot get along without his teammates," Dike Eddleman, Tri-city Blackhawk basketball player, the guest speaker at the annual athletic banquet said Tuesday evening, April 10. One hundred fifteen person attended the banquet which was served by the mothers. The tables, decorated by the Girls' Athletic Association, carried out the football and basketball theme. The speakers' table was centered with a cleverly drawn football player. Other tables were centered with megaphones and pennants with the names of basketball teams inscribed on them.

During the year the team has had three coaches. Coach Ben Odum was called into service in February and the team was then coached by Prin. A. E. Ehrig who was later relieved by Coach Fred Parks.

The program was in charge of Jay Bridges, master of ceremonies. Presentation of awards were given by Coach Parks to the following boys: Major basketball letters: Donald Bradley, captain, Robert Nowers, Ronald De Splinter, Donald De Splinter, Delner Doubler, Keith Spears; minor basketball letters: Leslie Nelson, Thomas Rieder, Clarence Miller, James Keeley, Marvin Price, Dale Nowers, Blair Clementz, August De May, Dennis Marchand, Donald Vendersnick, Joe Gilbraith, Manager Bill Keeley and numerals to Kenneth Newlon.

Major football letters: Ronald Oleson, captain, Robert Nowers, Harold Pritchard, Dave Marchand, Donald De Splinter, Thomas Rieder, Arvin Jackson, Delner Doubler, Leslie Nelson, Ronald De Splinter, Marvin Price, Dale Nowers, Gene Versluys; minor football numerals: Leroy Croegaert, Marvin Keim, James Gripp, August De May, Arthur Wancket, Frank Gripp, Graham Browning, Dennis Marchand, Ralph Pritchard, Joe Gilbraith, Donald Foerder, Blair Clementz.

Letters were presented to cheerleaders, Sue Nelson, Marilyn Ufheil, Mary Anne Gripp, Joan Morisette, Joan Grypp, Sharon Ufheil, and Betty and Stella Andrews.

Principal Ehrig presented the special athletic scholarship award to three junior boys, Arvin Jackson, Delner Doubler, and Ronald De Splinter. These boys are now members of The National Athletic Scholarship society of secondary schools, which requires them to be lettermen and leaders in their class. Their average school work for three consecutive semesters must be equal or higher than the average of the school and they must have exemplified the higher type of citizenship and sportsmanship.

They received a certificate of membership and a scholarship pin. This award is given annually to boys who meet these requirements. Last year Les Stockton, Robert Nowers, Keith Spears, and Ronald Oleson were given this award.

A film of the basketball game between Bradley and St. John's was also shown.

Scholarship Banquet Held at Annawan High

Chain Gilt Sponsored by FFA

The Annawan FFA has sponsored a chain gilt within their own circle to help new members get started on a project. One of their members, Dave Marchand, last year won $175 in prize money with his hogs.

There are 48 projects in the club that will have a total market value estimated at $12,000.

A Jazz Band Being Organized by Mr. Vitto

A jazz band is being organized by Mr. Ben Vitto, band instructor. Those taking part will be Ronald De Splinter, trumpet; Arvin Jackson, trombone; Joan Morisette, piano, and Sharon Ufheil, saxophone.

Bonnie Norway and Arden Williams are new members added to the school band. Bonnie plays the baritone horn and Arden plays a cornet.

Annawan GAA initiates 16 Girls.

Sixteen new members were initiated into the Annawan high school Girls' Athletic Association Monday evening, in connection with the annual Christmas party.

The president, Lolabelle Hansen, presided at the regular business meeting. The vice-president, Marilyn Keim; secretary, Virginia Snider; treasurer, Jennet Van Hyfte; song leaders, Mary Ann Grypp and Shirley Polson, and the different committee chairmen were present to fill their places.

The trip to Rock Island to see "Holiday On Ice" and selling food at auction after the Annawan-Mineral game, Dec. 12, were the business matters discussed.

The new members were presented a skit, that brought out the aims, advantages, and enjoyments offered by the GAA, by several club members before they took the pledge.

Gifts were distributed and the girls and their sponsor, Mrs. Ramah Peek, played a 6-team volleyball tournament. Captain Marian Dhamer's team defeated Captain Donna Mae Clementz's team by one point after two overtimes.

Supt. Ralph A. Osborn and Principal and Mrs. Alfred Ehrig were guests.

Two Annawan Students to Music Camp

Miss Charlene Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Parker, and Miss Marilyn Keim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keim, have been chosen by the Annawan Junior Woman's club to be sent to Egyptian Music Camp at De Quoin for one week.

Plan Teacher Program for Homemaking Dept.

The homemaking department of Annawan high school will start a teacher-training program March 12 to continue to the end of the school year.

Misses Nellie Clausen, of Cortland, Ill., and Donna Carlson, De Kalb, senior girls majoring in home economics education at Northern Illinois State Teachers College, will have the opportunity to see and participate in actual classroom and school techniques of teaching homemaking. They will teach the different homemaking classes, and be able to give the students individual help, participate in Future Homemaking association activities and will be here for several adult classes and observe the whole unit system in operation.

Two GAA Girls to Northern GAA Camp

Rosemary Wancket and Susan De Decker will represent the Annawan GAA at Northern Leadership Camp held at Conference Point Camp, Williams Bay, Wisconsin, June 10-17.

In addition to the valuable associations with other GAA girls and the wonderful time participating in the various sports and classes the girls learn many rules, regulations and GAA ideas and return to their home school better prepared to be leaders in their own organization.

Mineral Nips Annawan "Five" by 4 Points

Coach Ollie Jochums' Mineral high school cagers scored a thrilling 66-62 non-league overtime victory over Annawan here Friday night. The two teams battled to a 58-58 draw in regulation time.

Annawan led 24-22 at the intermission but Mineral managed to tie the count in a nip-and-tuck second half.

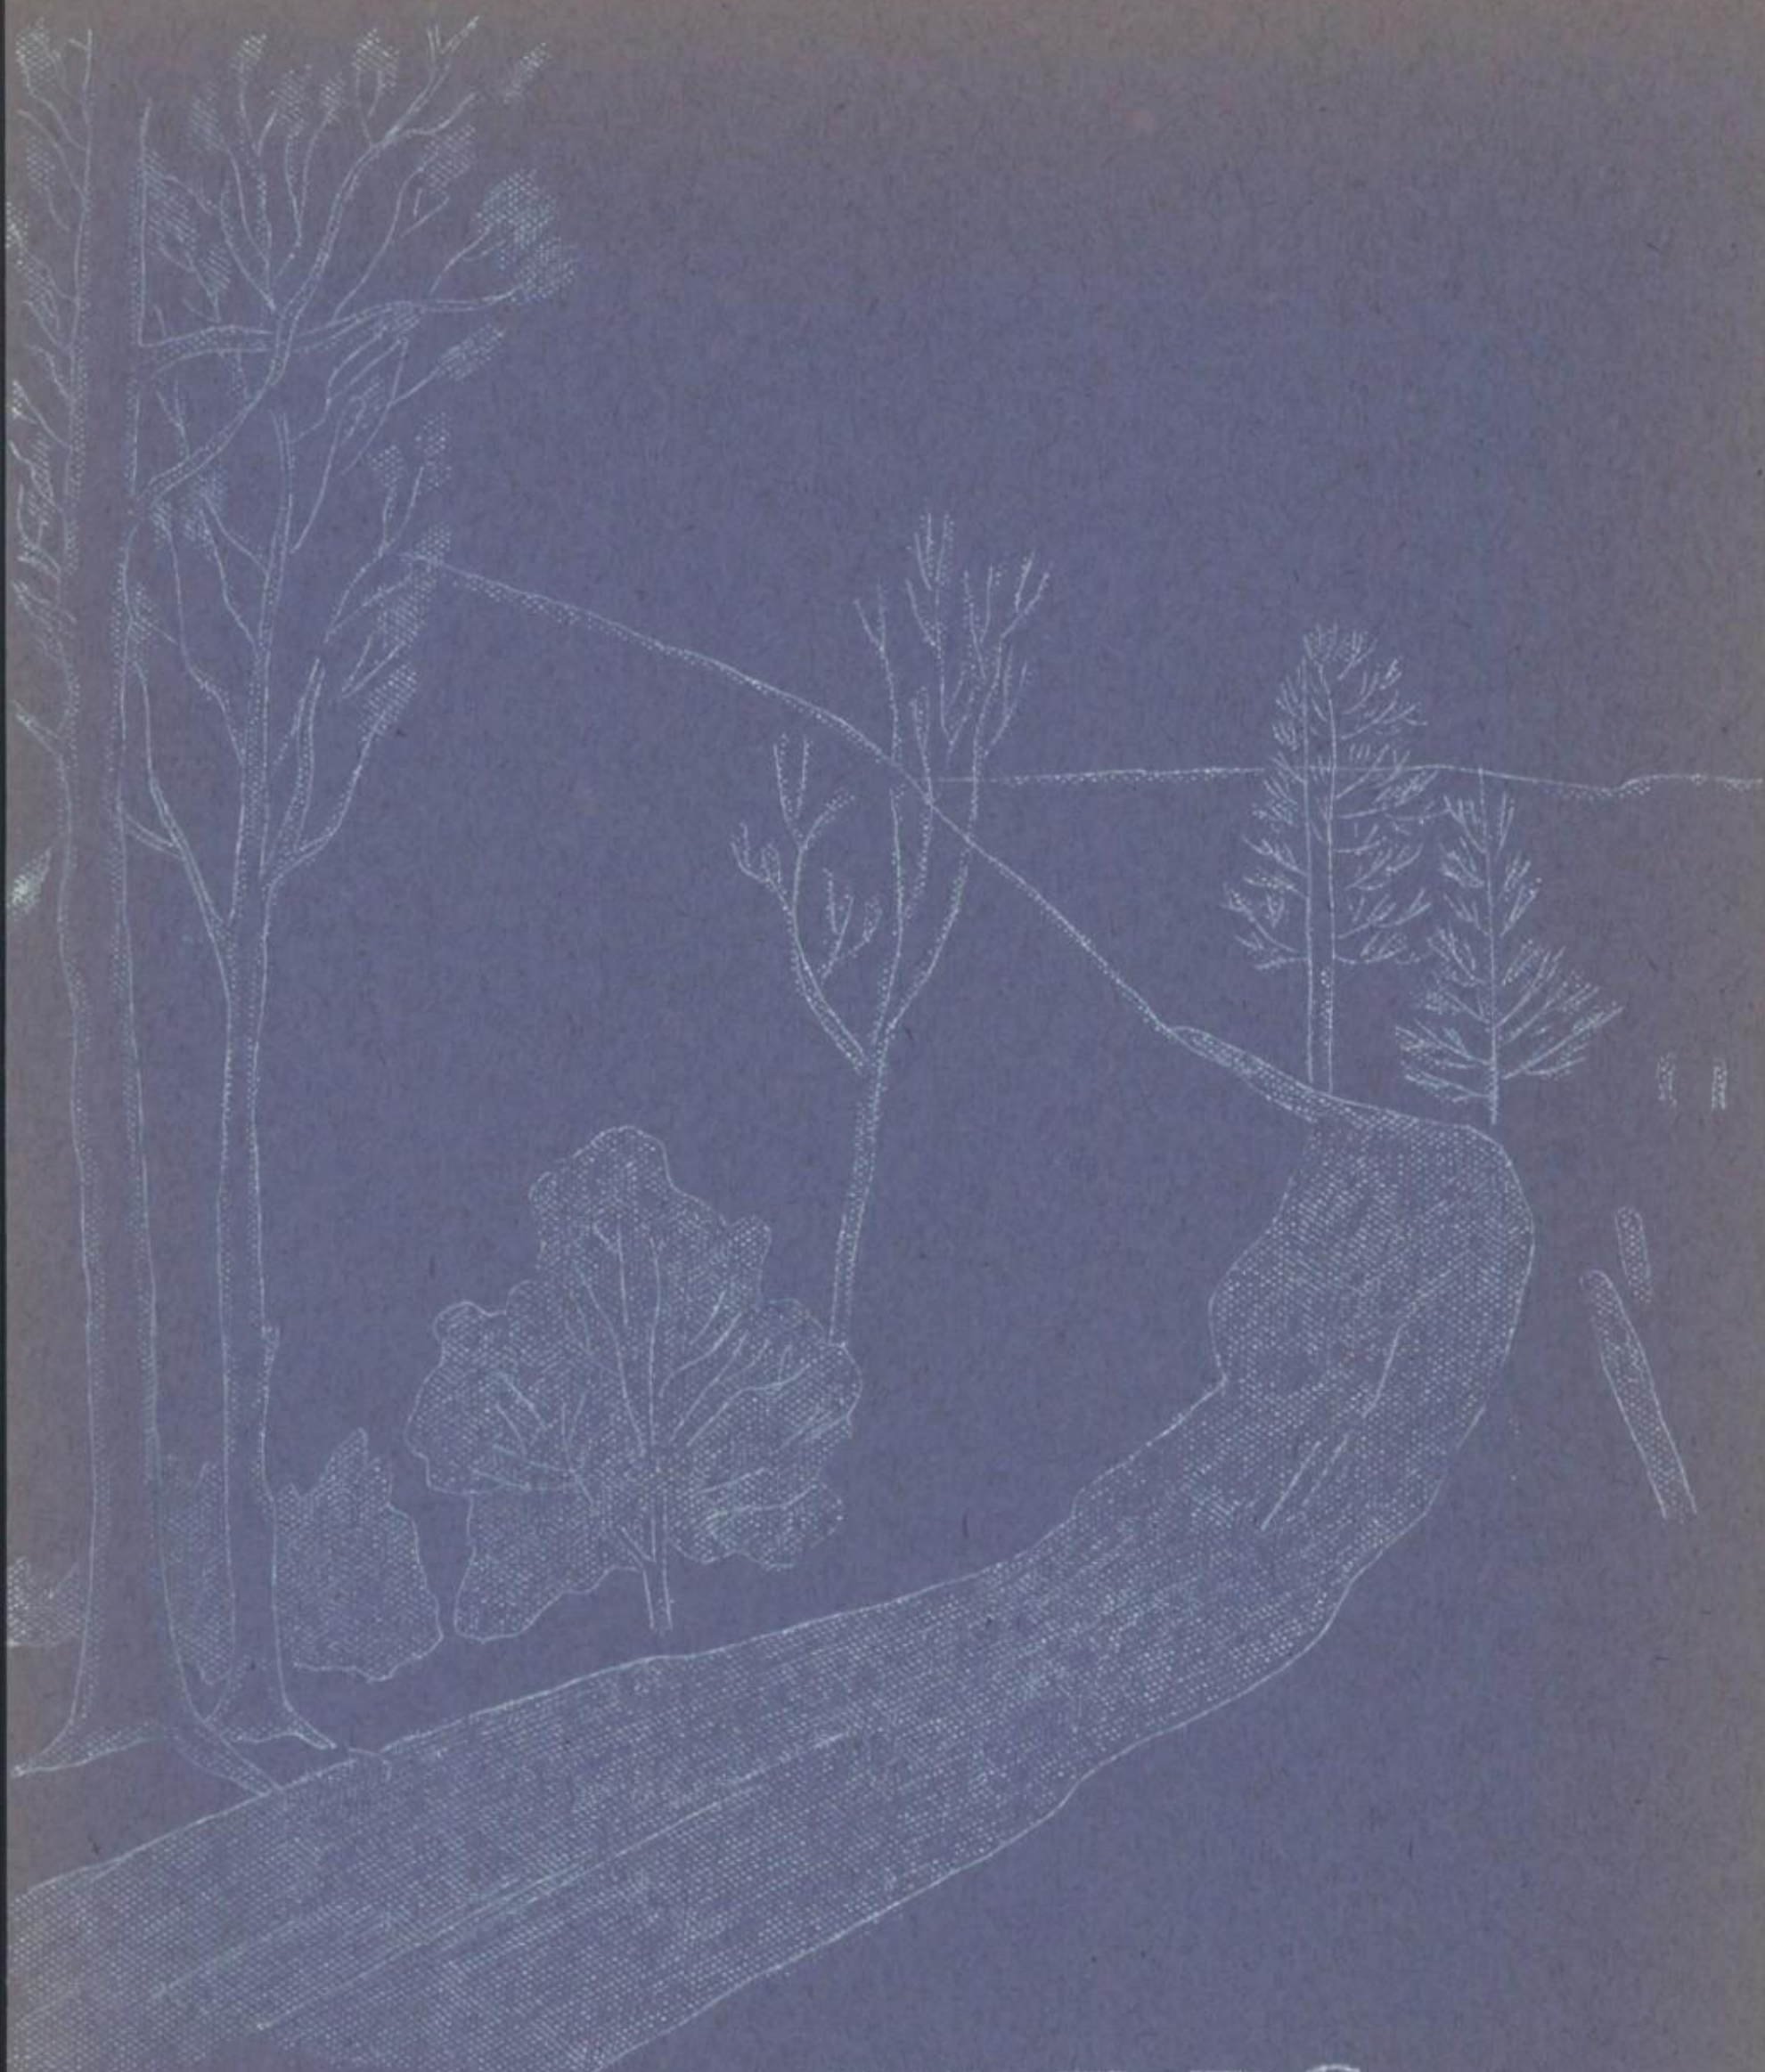

Bill Baird sparked the Leopards in the overtime with two baskets. Ben Morey took scoring honors for Mineral with 19 points. Don Bradley of Annawan led both teams with 20.

Nowers scored 15 points, Bradley 20, R. De Splinter 7, Don De Splinter 0, Doubler 14, Spears 6.

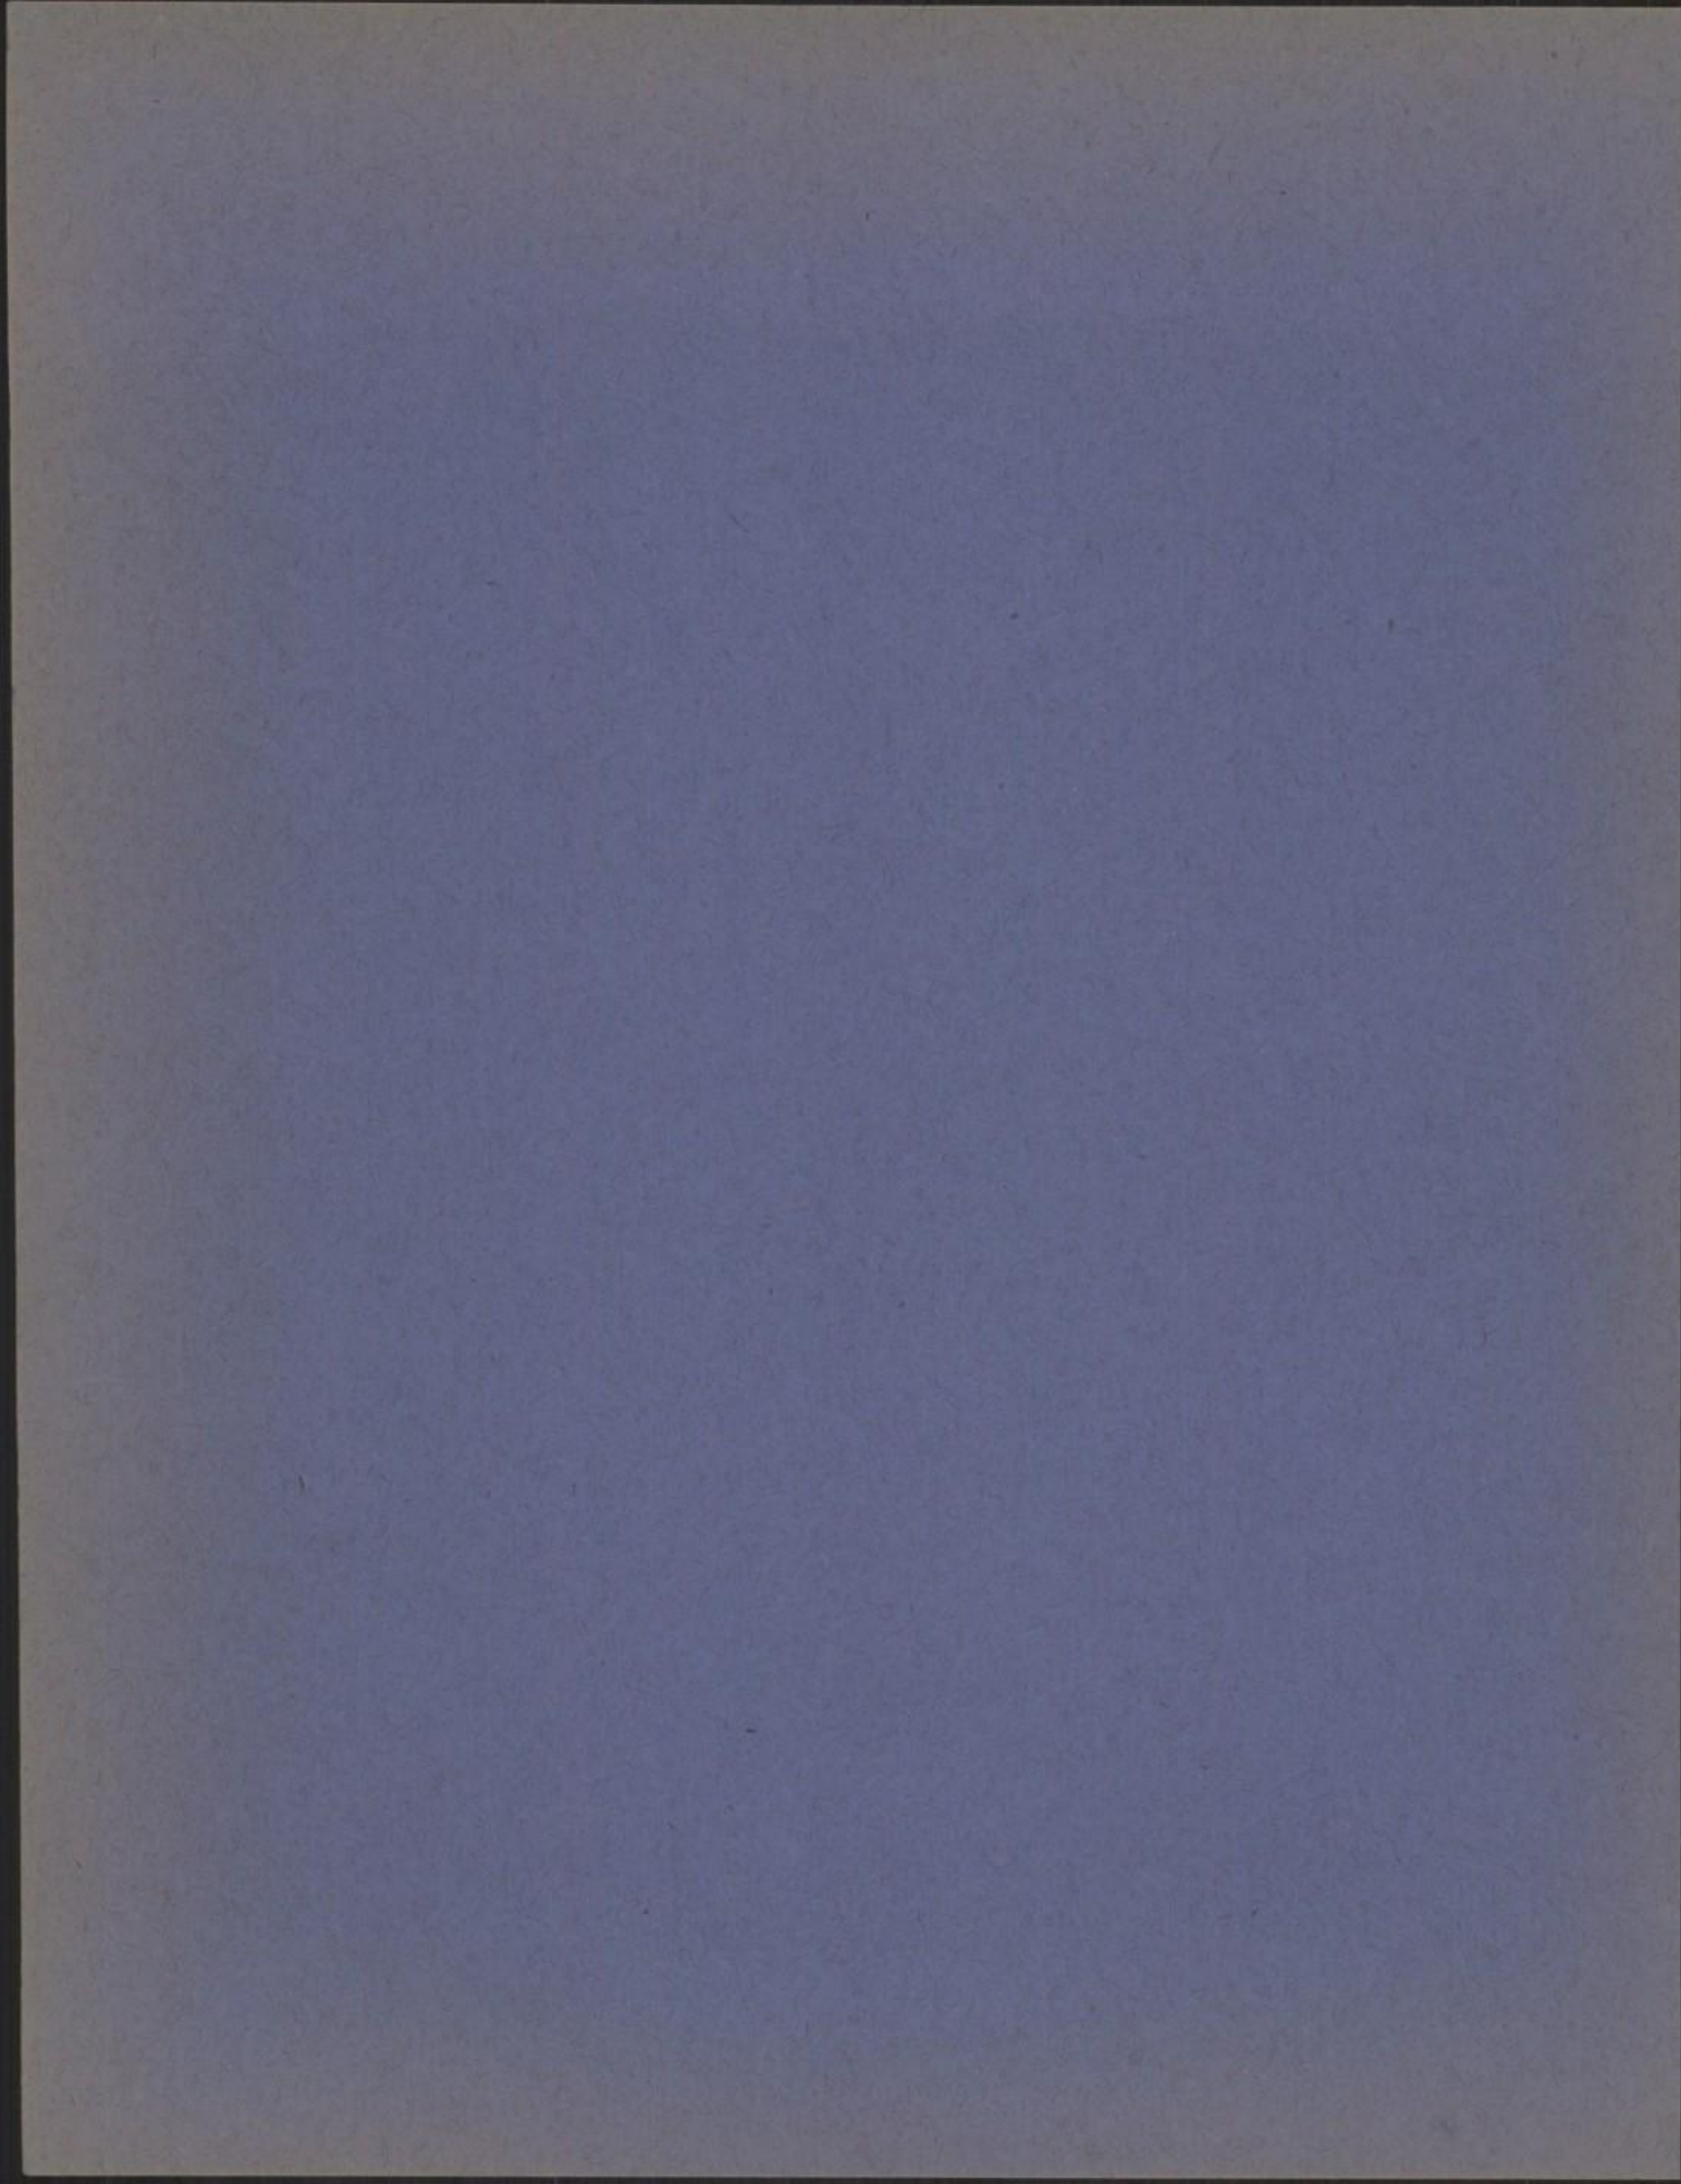

Annawan Trims Lyndon Prep Cagers—55-35

Annawan's prep cagers bounced back from last Tuesday's 90-28 defeat at the hands of Prophets-town to whip Lyndon, 55-35, in a non-conference game here Friday night. The victory was revenge for the Braves who dropped a 32-29 decision at Lyndon earlier this season.

Don Bradley paced Annawan with 14 points. Bob Nowers had 13 and Del Doubler added 12. Keith Spears added 8 points and Price, Nelson, and Keeley added 2 points apiece, Ronnie De Splinter and Don De Splinter added a free throw apiece, and Augie De May did not score.

Annawan High Appoints New Head Coach

Fred Parks, a graduate of Bradley University this term has been hired to be athletic director and head coach of Annawan high school.

Parks, whose home is in Chicago, served in the navy in World War II in the Pacific.

Parks was a letter-man at Bradley, and was part-time physical education director at Lock school in Peoria.

Parks will take over the freshman and sophomore basketball team immediately and will coach high school track and baseball. Prin. A. E. Ehrig will continue to coach the varsity basketball team until the end of the season.

Parks is living at the home of Mrs. Florence Powell until he can bring Mrs. Parks to Annawan.

The new coach succeeds Benton Odum, who left Annawan last week to enter military service. Odum had taken the Annawan position last September, succeeding Zane Hamm.

The new coach attended Englewood high school in Chicago. He won football and baseball letters at Bradley. While in the navy he earned a rating as carpenter's mate 3-c. In addition to his athletic duties at Annawan he will also teach social science.

One of his first duties will be the direction of next month's freshman-sophomore basketball meet here.

Annawan, Ohio Win

Annawan and Ohio copped victories in the freshman-sophomore basketball tournament here Tuesday night. Annawan tripped Atkinson 48-45, in an overtime. The score was tied at 41-41 at the end of regulation play.

High scorer was Price—17.

Winners of the Freshman-Sophomore Tournament

Manlius boys were the winners of the Freshman-Sophomore Tournament sponsored by Coach Fred Parks and his boys at Annawan. Ohio ranked 2nd with Wyanette 3rd.

Annawan won their first round only to drop to Ohio in one of the thrillers of the tournament by a score of 45-44. Wyanette then set them back to 4th place by a score of 43 to 32.

Keeley and Price made many sensational shots and rebounding (not to mention the shot from center made by Browning). Miller, Clementz, Van-dersnick, Gilbraeth and Augie De May were in there playing and doing their part at all times.

Annawan Sets Baseball Slate

Coach Fred Parks announces the Annawan high baseball schedule for this season will be:

JOKES

They laughed when Harold started to make a new kind of dynamite, but when he dropped it, they exploded.

Dorothy: "How do you find yourself these cold mornings?"

Bubbles: "Oh, I throw back the covers and there I am."

Leroy (looking at grades): "Well, I'm as famous as Washington now."

Dave: "How do you figure that?"

Leroy: "Well, I went down in history."

Margaret: "I hear you got thrown out of school for calling the dean a fish."

Bob: "I didn't call him a fish. I just said, 'that's our dean,' real fast."

Mr. Parks: "Of what trade are all the presidents of the United States?"

Keith: "Cabinet-makers."

STEPS OF SOPHISTICATION

Freshman: "I don't know."

Sophomore: "I am not prepared."

Junior: "I don't remember."

Senior: "I don't believe I can add anything to what has been said."

Rodney: "Great Scott! I've forgotten who wrote 'Ivanhoe.'"

Ronald: "I'll tell you if you tell me who the dickens wrote 'The Tale of Two Cities.'"

Mr. Parks: "In what battle did General Wolfe, when hearing of victory, cry: 'I die happy?'"

Shirley: "I think it was his last battle."

Mr. Bridges: "What can you tell me about the great Chemists of the 17th century?"

Don: "They're all dead."

Jennet: "Did you hear about the little moron who refused to die unless they put his shoes on?"

Donna: "No."

Jennet: "He didn't want to hurt his feet when he kicked the bucket."

Sue (reporter for the Review): "What should I say about the peroxide blondes who made such a fuss at the ball game?"

Mary Anne: "Say the bleachers went wild."

Marilynn: "Give me a ticket from Toronto to New York."

Agent: "Do you wish to go by Buffalo?"

Marilynn: "Certainly not—by train."

Good luck & may you always be as successful as you were efficient with the Annual & in P.E.
Ranah Peck

Dear Don,
Well it looks like
we have come to the end of the line of our school day. Good luck Don.
Don B.

Dear Don,
Well this is the last year that I will be signing your high school annual.
Good luck in all
you do.
Love,
Margaret

Dear Don,
Have fun at college and think
of me once in awhile.
Love you,
Mary Anne

Dear Don,
Keep up the good work with the Annual.
I hope you know what

Dear Don (red)
I have enjoyed going to school these past four years with
you. I will always remember those stumble parties
and our double dates with Marilyn. I miss you and wish you good luck and all the best.
Love
Lue

Dear Don, (red Swanson)
I'll always remember the good times we've had together.
Always remember the fun we had over the picture & cameras. I've really enjoyed taking pictures for the annual.
I hope that the pictures were suitable for the annual.
Lots of love to you.

Dear Doot,
I've been thinking
what am I going to do with all my friends leaving. And consider you as one of my "best." I hope that you won't forget me, even after your
a successful P.E. teacher, because I'll always think of you and especially the good times we've had.
I wish you the best of luck that's to had. (Including me!)

Dear Doot
Here's hoping we can still get together in the years to come. You can bring boy friends lots of luck (& love!) in school. - Don't forget me & all the fun we had on the Annual.
Love always - "Bubble".

Dear Dorothy,
I hope you have the best of luck in the future and in Manlius.
Dolores

Dear Dorothy,
Hope you have good
luck in college, remember the times you came to Manlius. Good luck with Ned
Don't do any more. Pat D.
Driving with your lights
off, remember that night.
I wish you could come down to Manlius more often, I will remember those Sundays you came down. Hope
we will always be good friends.
Good luck!

To Dee,
The best friend a girl could have. Lucky
we both went to camp and happened to know the same person (that brought us together)
Always remember the wonderful times we've had in Annapolis and Victoria!

Thanks for your friendship and lots of luck in the future. Remember to drink me a few lines when you are struggling away at Macomb.
Also, remember swimming in the lake (well, just about) and the early hours in the morning.
I have enjoyed knowing all of your friends too. We have had lots of good times,
especially the crazy things
we did.

Never do anything I would not do and always stay as sweet as you are!

Lots of luck to a pal
